

PSU SCHOOL OF FINE & PERFORMING ARTS PROGRAM STUDY

Portland , Oregon

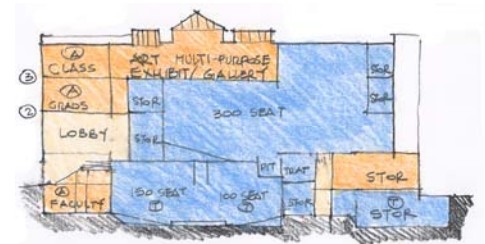

Portland State University School of Fine and Performing Arts Program Study including a new $58,000,000 building for the music and theater departments and renovated buildings for the art and architecture department. The new building, budgeted at $58,000,000 would include a 1200 seat performance hall, fine and performing arts library, art gallery, music and theater department performing and academic spaces. Lincoln Hall would be renovated to include a 500 seat, 150 seat and 100 seat performance spaces plus the art department. Shattuck Hall would be renovated to house the architecture department and would include enclosing the existing third floor deck for an exhibition/community space. Tasks included stakeholder interviews, departmental meetings, academic programming, meeting facilitation, design studies, and client presentations.

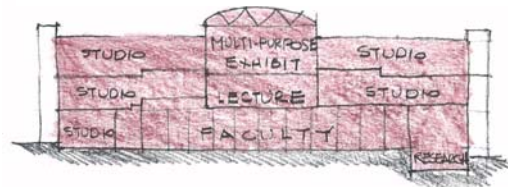

MASTER PLAN

NEW PERFORMING ARTS CENTER EAST-WEST SECTION

REMODELLED LINCOLN HALL EAST-WEST SECTION

REMODELLED SHATTUCK HALL EAST-WEST SECTION

EXISTING LINCOLN HALL

EXISTING SHATTUCK HALL