

ART BUILDING RENOVATION

Portland, Oregon

A 27,000 square foot renovation of the existing 3 story building for the PSU Art Department. Work included interior renovation of all floors including entry lobby, studios, library, offices. Design work included space planning, lighting, colors, and surface finishes. Construction administration was also included. Bruce Sternberg was the project architect while employed by PSU Facilities Department.

